Biographical Note

Barbara (Shute) Friberg was born in Gloucester on July 17, 1914 to Colonel Frank H. Shute and Annie (Burnham) Shute. As a young woman, she worked in the Sawyer Free Library and later as the executive assistant to the Dean of Endicott College. Before her retirement, she served as the administrator of the Gloucester Unitarian Universalist Church, of which she was a life-long member. Her marriage to Carl Friberg ended in divorce. She had a stepson, Carl Friberg, Jr. Barbara died on Christmas Day, 2011.
Scope and Content of the Collection

Barbara (Shute) Friberg had a strong interest in Shute genealogy and hoped to become a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) through her descent from James Story. Though her father was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, her application to the DAR was not successful. None the less, she collected records of her Shute, Burnham, Babson, Hale, Story, Witham and Proctor ancestors. Documentation includes vital records, correspondence related to family history, and genealogies.

Ms. Friberg was also the keeper of Shute family records and her papers include documents from the estates of Shute, Burnham, Babson, and Hale relatives. Documentation includes wills, deeds, and correspondence related to settling of estates.

She donated documentation of church history including the Methodist Church on Cape Ann collected by Myrtle L. Cameron, Historian of the Wesley United Methodist Church, and the Independent Christian Church to this collection.

Numerous family photographs were included in the donation, many unidentified. Many that are identified appear to be the work of an unknown person as the handwriting is quite different than Ms. Friberg’s and many of the identifications are tentative.
