Video Description

The Cape Ann Museum's 2009 exhibition, View from the Terrace: The Paintings of Charles Hopkinson was installed as part of its ongoing exploration of artists whose work flourished on Cape Ann. Although Hopkinson's sphere of influence extended from Harvard University to Versailles, it is clear that the sea, the light and the landscape of his Manchester home served as powerful sources of inspiration. This special recognition goes to curator Martha Oaks whose research on Hopkinson
