

CAPE ANN MUSEUM

ART HISTORY CULTURE

The Little House: Her Story

November 3, 2018 – March 31, 2019

The Little House: Her Story features the work of beloved children's book author & illustrator and founder of the Folly Cove Designers Virginia Lee Burton (1909–1968). In addition to Burton's drawings, book illustrations and prints, an artfully-created scale model of her "Little House," which was fabricated in Japan for an exhibition held at the Gallery A4 in Tokyo last year, will also be on display in the gallery.

OPENING DAY CELEBRATION Saturday, November 3, 2018

Opening day celebrations will include programs and activities for all ages. Free for CAM members or with admission. Reservations recommended.

SCHEDULE

10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Watercolor painting in the CAM Activity Center and origami daisy making in the gallery for all ages throughout the day.

10:30 a.m. / 12:00 p.m. / 1:30 p.m.

Story time: Join CAM staff for a reading of The Little House.

1:00 p.m.

Film-screening of Virginia Lee Burton: A Sense of Place with film producer Christine Lundberg.

3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Light refreshments served in the gallery.

This exhibition was made possible through the support of Cape Ann Savings Bank and Cape Ann Savings Trust & Financial Services and the Takenaka Scholarship Foundation and the following individuals: Nancy LeGendre & Walter Herlihy, Mary Craven, Margaret Pearson, Christine & Stephen Kahane, Arthur Ryan, J.J. & Jackie Bell, Gib & Sarah Carey, Paul & Christine Lundberg and Andrew Spindler.